THIS SECTION GETS ITS SHARE OF ROADS

NODAWAY COUNTY FARES WELL IN STATE HIGHWAYS

WHAT S. S. CONNETT SAYS

State Primary Road from St. Joseph To Maryville, With Federal Road To Iowa Line

Under the state road scheme as recommended by engineers of the state highway commission, Maryville will get a primary road. Connected with this primary road will be secondary roads, uniting many of the towns and a federal primary road to the Iowa line. According to the map this federal primary road from Maryville goes to Pickering and Hopkins.

S. S. Connett of Buchanan County, a member of the state highway commission, had the following to say about the selection of a primary road to Maryville:

"There will be a primary state road between St. Joseph and Maryville, forty-five miles. The fact that the Northwest Missouri Teachers College is at Maryville was taken into consideration by the engineers in routing this road. There will be a federal primary road from Maryville northward to the Iowa state line, about 20 miles.

"Off the St. Joseph-Maryville primary road, at a point near Rosendale, the engineers routed a federal primary road eastward to join the Jefferson Highway at King City. Thence it will proceed east and north to the Iowa line, through Stanberry, Albany and Bethany, all on the Jefferson Highway.

"It is the intention of the board to begin work, so fas as possible, simultaneously on the two systems of high ways.

The engineers' report designating the 1,800-mile federal system reads as follows:

"Under the federal aid act, Missouri is entitled to approximately eighteen hundred miles of federal primary highways in addition to the fifteen hundred miles of state primary roads. We therefore deem it advisable at this time to recommend an additional mileage that will complete the designation of the federal primary system.

"The federal primary routes must necessarily follow closely the designated state roads. Their importance, however, will in many instances require the same type of construction as that used on the state primary system. We must, therefore, necessarily decide upon the designation of the entire federal primary system before we can intelligently recommend the types of construction that should be used and to prepare estimates of cost on the portions of the system that are not now included in the state primary system.

"Most communities that are properly served with the state primary roads will eventually be served by the federal primary system or a secondary state road.

"Inasmuch as it is impossible to connect all of the population centers of the state with fifteen hundred miles of road and inasmuch as it is important at this time, that the entire federal primary road system be designated and the additional routes which will in connection with the state primary routes, form a network of cross state highways that will not only serve all communities of the state but will connect with the roads in adjoining states."

He will try to make arrangements to show the films at the different county picnics and gatherings during the month. It is his plan to show them in the evenings in the open air.

VACATION SCHOOL CLOSES TONIGHT

DEMONSTRATION PROGRAM AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

THE PUBLIC IS INVITED

Picnic Held Yesterday Afternoon at College Park and Supper Was Served

What is a Daily Vacation Bible School? What are my children really learning? If you wan an answer to to these, or similar questions, be sure to go to the Maryville High School Auditorium at 8 o'clock this evening. Parents and all interested in the best means of training the children in the things of religion are especially urged to attend. There will be no admission charge.

A typical days program will be presented. The first number is the march in, singing, Bible drill and memory work. Then a demonstration of the work done in dramatizing Bible stories. This will be by the intermediate class. Next will be some exhibition of the sort of supervised recreation that is a part of each day's program.

The boys and girls today were working hard finishing up the things they have been making in the handwork or craft periods. The girls have been sewing, and the boys making jointed animals for farmyard and circus out of beaver board. These will be on display.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock one of the most enjoyed features of the Daily Vacation Bible School began. It was the picnic. Beal Roseberry had secured a lot of cars, and in these the children were taken to the Normal park. For a couple of hours the park hummed and roared with the various games and shouting children. Baseball, jumping, tag, punch hide and seek, volley ball, dodge ball, were all directed by Miss Mary MacLeod and a number of helpers. By six o'clock all were tired and ready to eat.

Mrs. Ellis Cook headed the committee of women from the various churches that prepared the supper. Over four hundred sandwiches had been made and not one sandwich or anything else was left. Ten gallons of ice cream also disappeared. Helping Mrs. Cook were Miss Dessa Gault, Mrs. Earl Henderson, Mrs. John White, Mrs. L. E. White, Mrs. C. C. Leeson, and a number of others. Many of the parents were out for the entire time or for the supper.

STATE ROAD IN STRIKING CONTRAST TO RIVER

Was Smooth and Dusty Last Night While the River was Running at a High Water Stage

The condition of the State road between the city limits and the One Hundred and Two River was in striking contrast last night to the river itself. The road had been dragged and was in pretty good condition. Motor cars passing over it caused a fog of dust to raise which hung over the road. At the same time the river was running at a high water stage within four or five feet of the top of the bank.

It is said by farmers that the wheat that was carried from the fields and lodged in some places along the fence rows is practically a total loss. They will not be able to save any of it so that it can be threshed, excepting in rare cases and it will be sprouting before very much of it can be moved out and fed to hogs.

Carl P. [illegible] of Des Moines will arrive tonight to spend a few days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cummins.

BISHOP M'MURRY TO BE HERE SUNDAY

PREACHES AT M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH AT 10:45 O'CLOCK

IS NO STRANGER HERE

Has Done Big Work in His Church—Served in Office of General Board of Extension

Bishop W. F. McMurry of Louisville, Ky., will be in Maryville, Sunday morning, arriving Saturday evening from St. Joseph. He will preach from the pulpit of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the 10:45 o'clock service.

Bishop McMurry is one of the foremost men of the Southern Methodist Church, and her strongest bishop. For four years, 1897-1901 he was presiding elder of the St. Joseph district, in which district Maryville is located. Hence, he is no stranger to this section of the state. Being a Missouri boy, he is no stranger to any section of our state. He was born in Shelby County.

For twelve years previous to his election to the office of bishop, Dr. McMurry served in the office of the General Board of Church Extension, being elected its corresponding Secretary in 1906. He was relieved from the duties of his office by being elected bishop in 1918. He is now president of the board.

During his connection with the Board of Church Extension its Loan Fund Capital has increased from $200,000 to $1,100,000, and its income during the twelve years he was Corresponding Secretary increased from $2,171,611 to $5,056,283.

Maryville being in the episcopal district Bishop McMurry is now president of, he is making this visit in the interests of Southern Methodism here.

Bishop McMurry will speak but one time in Maryville. He is on his way to Denver, Colo., and will be taken to Ravenwood Sunday afternoon so that he may take the train from there for St. Joseph in order to make connection with his train for Denver.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY ABOUT DAMAGE

TELL OF MANY FIELDS OF WHEAT BEING WASHED AWAY

SOME NARROW ESCAPES

Several People Caught by the High Water—Live Stock Lost

The papers over the county tell about the terrific rainfall of last Sunday night and of the damage resulting from the high water. The following is from the Ravenwood Gazette:

One of the heaviest rains in the history of this section of the country began falling Sunday about 5 p. m. and continued a regular downpour until 6 a. m. Monday morning, and in the 13 hours there was a rainfall at Ravenwood of 12⅝ inches. The rain was accompanied by terriffic thunder and lightning. Some damage was done to buildings and stock by the lightning and the streams are the highest in years. Many thousand dollars worth of crops have been destroyed and some loss of livestock. Bridges and culverts are out and traffic is greatly interrupted.

Fortunately no lives were lost, but the families of Troy Bloomfield, Mr. Cain and Mr. Weaver had thrilling experiences. Platte River rose so rapidly that Mrs. Bloomfield and children had to be taken from their home on horse back after the water had risen to a depth of 12 inches in their home. They were taken to higher ground by Hugh Thrasher with his horse. Mr. and Mrs. Bloomfield and children are now staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lewis, having lost most of their belongings.

The Weaver family waded water waist deep to higher ground. They are staying temporarily at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brandt. They lost some 300 chickens, bedding, clothing, and much other stuff.

The Cain family were rescued by friends from Conception and are now with the parents of Mrs. Cain in Conception.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Joy and sons also flood sufferers, the water being around the out buildings, and about a foot deep in the house. They also lost around 550 chickens, but the rest of the stock was saved.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Stockstill and children were brought from their home in the lowlands by Charles Farr father of Mrs. Stockstill, and they are now at the Farr home. The only damage they suffered was damage to their household goods by water.

Heavy losers of grain were, E. M. Bishop, 40 acres of wheat; also Slagle & Bishop, Bogue & McMullin, Joy, Danford & Beedle, Everett Morin, V. O. Hunt, Meyer Bros., James Hawk, J. J. Smith, Lester David, Wm. Bishop, Henry Moore, Wm. Jackson, Charles and William Warehime, Mr. Lewis and several others were heavy losers of wheat. Grant Gates lost his oats, and many others have corn that will be greatly damaged by the standing water.

The Clearmont News had the following:

It commenced raining about 6 o'clock in the evening and the water came down in almost torrents. The rain kept up all night not ceasing until after daylight. The thunder and lightning was terrific and about midnight there was quite aheavy wind for a short time. The next morning Clear Creek, south of town was out all over the bottoms and was several feet deep on this side of the bridge, and considerable damage was done to the wheat field along the creek, and considerable of the wheat in shocks was washed away. The heaviest losses

SCHOOL VACATION NOW HALF GONE

SEVEN WEEKS FROM TODAY IS SEPTEMBER 1

REPAIRS AT BUILDINGS

Chairs and Tables Replace Some of the Seats and Desks—New Floors in Play Rooms

The vacation of the Maryville schools is half over. The schools were closed eight weeks ago today and seven weeks from today will be September 1. The date for the opening of school has not been definitely announced but it is probable that it will be either the first or second Monday in September, the fourth or the eleventh.

Maryville has a full corps of teachers under contract and the buildings are being put in shape for the opening this fall. The school board has had men at work since the schools closed making repairs and improvements at the various buildings. A new concrete floor is being put in each of the three ward buildings. Considerable plumbing has been done at the Central building and the roof of this building has been painted.

Some of the old seats and desks have been removed at the ward school buildings and replaced with tables and chairs. The primary departments of these schools have been equipped this way for some time. It is held that the tables and chairs are more hygienic than the seats and desks.

New bookcases have been provided at the Jefferson and Franklin schools.

About sixty tons of coal was carried over at the Central building from last year. A month ago this became hot and began to flame. It has all been removed and piled outside the building. It is said by members of the school board that they do not know yet what difficulty they will encounter in the securing of a supply of coal for the winter, should the coal strike continue, but that if there is coal to be had anywhere the schools will be supplied.

Some minor repairs are being done to windows and blinds at the buildings. J. E. James is keeping the grounds at all the schools well mowed and looking good.

MANY DEMOCRATS CAME TO HEAR REED

Had Not Received Word of His Speech Having Been Cancelled Here

A number of Democrats from over the county came to Maryville last evening for the purpose of hearing Senator James A. Reed, they having not heard of him being unable to fill his date here on account of the flood. The word that Senator Reed would be unable to speak here was received by James B. Robinson yesterday morning.

MEMBERS OF COURT TO JEFFERSON TWP. TODAY

Report that the Platte River Bridge west of Conception had gone out is incorrect

Members of the county sourt made an inspection trip today to Jefferson township to view the damage to the bridges done by the high water. It was reported that a few bridges over Wild Cat in that township had been washed away.

County Clerk Fred Smith said that the report of the Platte river bridge west of Conception Junction had gone out was not correct. Only four or five planks of this bridge had been washed out by the high water.

So far as is now known, not a single river bridge was washed out. Most of the bridge damage done was by the smaller streams and ditches.

There are three gangs of bridge workers for the county over the county. Another gang will be at work Monday.

Quite a record was made on putting back a bridge that had been washed out over the Mozingo branch, south of the Mt. Ayr church, in Polk township. Yesterday afternoon ten men in that community put back the bridge in two hours and forty minutes.

Mrs. Charles F. Lamkin and sons, Charles and Henry, who have been visiting for several weeks at the College residence with President and Mrs. Uel W. Lamkin, left this morning for their home in Keytesville.

T. C. COIL'S ARM DISLOCATED THIS MORNING

T. C. Coil, who lives on F. P. Robinson's farm southwest of Maryville, dislocated his left arm when a team pulled him off of a load of sheaf wheat about 10 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Coil was hauling wheat to his barn to store until this winter. He was going over a bad piece of road and the single tree broke letting the team loose from the wagon. Mr. Coil was pulled off of the wagon and fell on his arm. He was taken to St. Francis Hospital and the arm was set.

JULY 23 CHAPMAN MEMORIAL SUNDAY

MONEY TO BE RAISED FOR MONUMENT TO FORMER PASTOR.

CHURCHES IN 2 COUNTIES

Will Cost From $1,000 to $1,500—To Be Free Will—No Coaxing or Urging.

Sunday, July 23, has been designated as Chapman Memorial Sunday for the Christian churches of Andrew and Nodaway counties and some of the Christian chuches outside of these counties. This was decided at a meeting of the memorial committee, held ing of the memorial committee, held R. E. Snodgrass of Maryville, chairman of the committee attended the meeting. The other members are R. S. Mickey, Rosendale, treasurer; Orson Cummins, Rosendale; the Rev. N. O. Rogers, Savannah.

Announcements will be made at all of the churches in the two counties regarding the memorial day at the services Sunday morning. The contributions will be absolutely free will, Mr. Snodgrass says. No one will be coaxed to contribute. It will be put up to the churches and the members and they may do as they see fit about it.

It is thought that the memory of the Rev. William Chapman, who was killed at Rosendale by a train a month ago, will be sufficient to stimulate giving without any urging or coaxing.

Contributions will be made both by churches as a body and by individuals. Each church and town in the two counties will have a man appointed to receive the contributions. It is said that a good many people from other churches or who do not belong to a church will make contributions.

No forcast is made as to what the amount of the contributions will be. It is said that the monument that the committee desires to erect will cost between $1,000 and $1,500.

One of the first churches to raise a fund for the monument was the Christian Church at Rosendale. The Sunday school of that church raised $52 last Sunday and the missionary society of the church has already raised $25. The church has its goal for the fund at $200.

The monument is to be erected at the grave of the Rev. Mr. Chapman at Rosendale.

A COINCIDENCE.

The deaths of Attorneys J. W. Peery, of Albany, and J. C. Wilson, of Bethany, which occurred on Monday of this week, is a remarkable coincidence.

For forty years these men had been practicing law in their respective towns, and had been associated intimately for many years. Each man was prominent in his community, the reputation of each extending to distant points. The two men were unlike in so many respects, but for years there existed the closest friendship between them, not only professionally and politically, but for the others worth. Probably no two lawyers of this section have been employed on big cases more than these two men, sometimes they were on the same side of the case, often arrayed against each other.

With these two attorneys gone there will be a vacancy in the Gentry and Harrison circuit courts, for in years past there have been terms where the two had a bulk of the cases.

The men were near the same age, Mr. Peery being 67 and Mr. Wilson 66. The former's death came after more than a year of almost invalidism, and the other after only a few days of poor health.

Another instance of the closely related lives of these two men is that last night the two bodies lay side by side at the depot at Chariton, Iowa, the one on the way to Chillicothe for burial, and the other on the way to its last resting place at Bethany. Albany Ledger.

RIVER IS TWELVE FEET BELOW HIGH WATER MARK

One Hundred and Two River this afternoon stood about twelve feet below high water mark and is slowly falling. The water continues to cut from the east end of the dam. Mayor F. P. Robinson ordered another carload of rock yesterday to be used for the purpose of filling the wash as soon as the water recedes so that work can be resumed. The car of rock which arrived last week has been unloaded near the dam. Mayor Robinson said that it was uncertain when the second car of rock will be here.

ATTEMPTED JAIL BREAK AT ROCK PORT SUNDAY

George Keever Was Made an Offer if He Would Agree to Quit That County

The following is from this week's Rock Port Mail:

An attempt at an apparent jail delivery was frustrated by Sheriff Chastain and deputies Sunday with the discovery that two sell bars had been sawed. The sawing of these bars did not mean liberty, by a whole lot, as two sets of window bars still stood between the prisoners in the jail and liberty.

It is thought the bars were sawed by one Frank Cowan, who was placed in jail Saturday after having been caught in an alleged attmept to get George Keever, state witness, out of the country. Charles Keever, brother of George, was taken into custody at the same time Cowan was rearrested and is also in jail. Both men had been out on bond under charges of larceny in connection with East Atchison county's theft wave.

Charges of bribery and carrying concealed weapons have now been placed against Cowan as a result of the effort to get George Keever away from Atchison county.

It is charged that on Friday night George Keever, who is a trusty and at present employed on Sheriff Chastain's farm just east of the city limits of Rock Port, was approached with a proposition that he would be given $100 if he would agree to quit the county. He seemingly agreed and the men who came for him got as far as Maryville with Keever, when he demanded $200 instead of the original sum. Returning to Atchison county to secure the additional sum, the party was apprehended near Tarkio by deputies Harry Luckhardt and Bob Andrews, who took the men in charge and brought them to jail.

The officers were aware of most of the moves in prospect and it was through the information in their possession that they were able to forestall the getaway.

George Keever, first of the men alleged to have been implicated in the crime wave, gave the authorities the information which led to the wholesale arrests which have already resulted in several men being sent to the penitentiary and it has been apparent ever since he made his confession that his removal from the county would be highly satisfactory to some whose trials have not yet been held.

Increased Comfort with Less Fuel

Installation of the Lennox TORRID ZONE —MONOPIPE Furnace will greatly increase comfort in the home throughout long winter days and yet materially decrease the amount of fuel used, thereby affecting real economy.

The TORRID ZONE—MONOPIPE provides at all times clean, even heat throughout the entire house. All steel construction does away with gas and smoke, which soils furnishings and is so unhealthful to breathe.

Are For McDaniel, Democrats Say

Thinks John the Only Available Man for the Place to Do Justice to the District

The following is a contribution from a Democratic friend of John McDaniel who is anxious for John to win as the Democratic congressional nominee from the Fourth district:

"You should keep it before the Democratic readers of The Reporter that every Democratic vote in Andrew county should be cast for John McDaniel at this August 1 primary. This is an agricultural district, this Fourth district is, and it should have a farmer in congress. John has been a wide awake farmer all his life. He is well educated in the needs of the farmers. He has demonstrated his ability in the wool pool work all over Missouri. His wisdom solved problems over Northwest Missouri and he was called to St. Louis last year to assist in the work there and the state board of agriculture recognizing him as a coming man in agriculture lines placed him in charge of the state wool work.

"There are sixteen congressmen from Missouri and fifteen of them are lawyers and one is a banker and surely the voters of this farming district will recognize this opportunity of having a really representative in Washington and will vote for him to a man.

"There is no better man anywhere than John McDaniel. He has the highest of ideals and fights for them. He is a clean, Christian young man and all who know him know that humanity's interest are his.

"John is not a politician. He is a worker and a doer. He is not a cold self-centered honor-seeking man but a young, active interested, humanity lover, and father of two young and promising sons.

"This wholesome man who has the best and highest of life in his mind and heart, is the right sort to fight for cleanliness in politics and be a factor in helping civilization in its upward trend by beginning with the laws of the country.

"There is naught against John McDaniel. He has a clean record for hard work and success in everything he has attempted. Let's keep him clean and keep his record clean and put him in a position where he will help the district to do its part for the better interests in this life.

"Others may be twice as old as John but they have not accomplished so much as John. He will serve the district well because he is enthusiastic, is a hard worker, conscientious and he has ability.

"Every Democratic man and woman voter in the district, who has the highest ideals of the home, the highest ideals of the church, the highest ideals of manhood and womanhood at heart should go to the polls at this primary and vote for John McDaniel to be the Democratic nominee for congress from the Fourth district. There are few Democrats before this primary in this county and that makes it very important that every influence should be used to get the voters out because the primary is more important than the general in selecting the right man for the place. Be sure to come out and vote for John McDaniel August 1."—Savannah Reporter.

Gowns for this fall promise more feminine style

Begin now to get ready for your fall and winter personality.

Since gowns no longer fit the body, they simply must fit the mind. There must be a secret agreement somewhere.

Your mental attitude will determine whether you are in harmony with your clothes or if you are striking discords.

Clothes for this winter are rich, elegant and regal. To wear them properly you must look as if you felt that way, no matter what sylphlike proportions the family wallet may have attained.

The best anti-flapper propaganda I know of is being sent over now from Paris in the form of exquisitely feminine gowns, the very latest word in beauty and luxury.

Be assured that the talk about the longer skirt is not mere idle gossip. Afternoon and evening gowns are down very near the ankles.

The fashionable hemline, however, is broken by draperies and loose panels.

Materials are very rich. Velvet was once quite splendid enough without trimming, now it is embroidered and beaded in the most gorgeous colors.

The silhouette remains practically the same. The waistline is low. While the general straight-line policy is followed, it allows all sorts of variations.

Fronts and backs are usually plain, save for embroidery or beading, but nearly every frock has a side trimming of some sort.

The sleeveless frock is still fashionable, but is no longer in an undisputed position. There are close-fitting elbow sleeves on some frocks, and gracefully draped effects on others.

Many frocks are carried out entirely in one tone. Unrelieved red, yellow, green or flame color is most striking. Black gowns are apt to be relcived by touches of gorgeous colors.

If, by any chance, you are dieting, keep up the good work. The fewer excess pounds you have now, the less work is ahead of you.

Birthday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Johnson entertained yesterday evening with a birthday dinner in honor of their daughter, Jeanne's third birthday. The guests were Mrs. T. E. Simmons and son, Duane, Miss Lulu Bertram of Rockport, Ray Franklin and Olive Johnson.

Mrs. Garten Hostess

Mrs. Robert Garten was hostess Wednesday afternoon to the P. N. C. Club. The afternoon was spent with the usual needlework and refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Ernest Kessler. The members present were Mrs. James Greenlee, Mrs. Banner Brummett, Mrs. Ed Kepner, Mrs. C. E. Simmons, Mrs. Clarence O'Banion and Mrs. R. F. Johnson. Guests of the Club were Mrs. Frank Henderson and Mrs. Ernest Kessler. The club will meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Banner Brummett.

Camping Party.

Mrs. I. E. Tulloch will chaperon a group of girls at a camping party next week on the Ernest Wray farm. If the weather permits the party will leave here Sunday afternoon and camp until Friday night. In the camp will be Misses Mary Jane Bellows, Kathryn Chandler, Kathryn and Florence Wray Lucile Snyder, Winifred Baker, Edwyna Forsyth, Virginia Curnutt, Leona Miller, Virginia Tulloch and Frances Remus.

State Bank Examiner Resigns

W. E. West, of Bolckow, who was appointed as state bank examiner by Governor Hyde two years ago, has resigned his position and is going into business for himself. His letter head gives the name of the company as the William E. West investment Company and the business as stocks and bonds and their special work of bank stocks and consolidation of banks. Mr. West's offices are in the Republican building and their work will be in Kansas City but their home and their heart will be at Bolckow, Missouri, his old home town.—Savannah Reporter.

Mr. Bert Florea and family moved the first of the week from the McMillen property in the south part of town to the M. E. Parsonage which they will occupy until they can get posession of another property they have rented.

Faye Florea and family of Kansas City drove up this week for a visit with Mr. Florea's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Florea and with Mrs Florea's mother Mrs. M. A. Lawson of Long Branch neighborhood and with other relative here.

The efficiency of the drainage ditch in preventing the river over flowing the bottom lands was proven here during the heavy rain last Sunday night. Notwithstanding the fact that about eleven inches of rain fell here the river did not get out of banks until the combined waters of the Mowery and Pinhook branches forced it out at the Lamport bridge, two and a half miles south of town. Very little damage was done by the river here but the smaller streams did considerable damage. A number of fills on the roads were badly washed out and two county bridges wrecked. One of the these on the Mozzingo Branch east of Bloomdale school was washed off the piling while the approach was torn off the bridge over Clear Creek near Jas. Workman farm.

The rain washed the corn fields badly, and the oats which were not cut were badly lodged. The fields are so soft that little can be done this week toward saving the small grain.

Communication

COMMUNICATION

Agitator vs. Educator.

Many ages back seers saw the conflict between labor and capital coming. Woe was pronounced upon him who would keep back the hire of his laborers, and those to whom the injustice was done, were admonished to be patient.

We surmise that all down through the ages there has been more or less feeling of discontent between these two factions, each one seeing from a different angle. We know that in all periods there have been two classes, rich and poor and the world has come to reckon them in terms of Capital and Labor.

As the world has become more densely populated, naturally the situation has grown more keen.

We used to read tales of oppression to our free born laborers in the earlier history of our country. He did not receive adequate pay, worked long hours, and was at the mercy of his employer generally. In many cases, where a great number were employed, and this is the question we are dealing with, the company owned the houses which were rented to the employees; stores were operated at which employees were compelled to trade. (It makes us think of England and her American colonies.) On pay day, after rent, store bills, fuel etc. were deducted the man usually found himself in arrears each month more and more, and more in the power of his employer.

In mining districts if he were married there was no way out, except to forsake his family and leave between evening and morning. Not being able to keep things going the next step was to put the children to work as fast as age allowed, ushering in that age of child labor which has been a reproach to us. As these people looked ahead and saw the life they must leave their children to, abject despair was theirs. This condition was deplorable, but work and poverty we would choose for our children rather than the environment of lawlessness that exists in many labor districts now.

It is shameful that such working conditions as the past records show should have existed. There are many bright spots in the history of labor as employer and employee worked in harmony, each enjoying the fruits of his labor with malice towards none.

Oppression in its various forms brought about that combination of employees known today as unions. The combination of forces was to bring about better conditions in every way for the working man and family. It seems today that they have over reached themselves in as much as one who does not see fit to become a member is not allowed to follow his pursuits, his natural rights.

With the forming of unions there sprung up a character who saw in the unions a broad field in which to work. We will call him the agitator. He calls himself the working man's friend. His credentials properly interpretated read like thus "agitator" in big letters is my name. I am the Walking Delegate and my business is the disturbing of tranquil minds. I arouse suspicion and envy in men against those over them, leading them to think they are abused, robbed and mistreated generally. If they are the losers in a strike, it is their loss.

"I guaranatee nothing but trouble."

I have in mind an instance of how Mr. Killjoy or Agitator works. He one time found a married man happily located on a farm having a garden, cow, chickens, and house furnished him, with a fair wage of legal tender coming in each month.

A good country school was near where the children could get a start in education so much more necessary to the humble worker than realized.

Mr. Agitator, after surveying the situation, thought such bliss should not remain unmolested. He averred that Mr. B. had a good proposition but really thought Mr. A., the owner, could have done a little better by him. He reminded B.of the financial standing of A. how he lived etc. and no doubt felt he was making a good thing off of B. This is one form of the propaganda used. The seed was sown and by constant watering bore fruit in season. Use this style of argument and you arouse a feeling of self pity and in large establishments the fruit is usually a strike.

It is what I would term destructive education. The agitator is usually one who gets as much as he can for giving as little as he can, one who is never happy when his fellow men are enjoying their work and feeling that life is worth while.

Could facts be gathered about strikes it would be found that many men vote to strike against their deepest convictions lacking the moral courage to stand alone. Many strong men have walked out with tears streaming down their cheeks, as they realized they were giving up a good living for uncertainty. Often times the men do not understand the real issue, but strike they must.

The President of Illinois Central Rail Road, says in referring to present strike, "I believe that those of you who are striking have been misled, or educated wrong."

It was thought the big railroad strike would be averted because of the higher intelligence on part of Rail Road employees, and we all hope because of that very asset it will the sooner be settled.

Ravenwood to have Picnic

At a meeting of the citizens of Ravenwood, Friday night, at the Legion Hall it was decided to hold the annual picnic at Ravenwood on August 17, 18 and 19. At there was some money on hand from last year and some from the Fourth of July contributions, the merchants were interviewed and the necessary additional funds were subscribed in a few minutes. It was then decided by those assembled to turn the money to the American Legion, who will have full charge of the picnic.—Ravenwood Gazette.

Congressman Fordney Will Retire

They Are Buying More Of The 5-cent smokes

The day of the 8-cent-straight-2-for-15-cent cigars is passing, according to John Behm of the Behm & Hansen Cigar company of Maryville. Mr. Behm says he finds in making his territory that in most of the towns the dealers are wanting either the 5-cent varieties or the 10-centers. In one town he says that he found dealers who were selling out their 8-cent stock at 5 cents.

Mr. Behm believes that this is due to the fact that people are more conservative than theiy have been for the past few years about the amount of money thep pay out. They are more likely to purchase a 5-cent smoke, or if they feel flush to buy a 10-center, than to split up the nickles.

DAMAGE IN N. W. MISSOURI ESTIMATED AT 110,000,000

St. Joseph, July 14—Waters in northwest Missouri streams are receding and the streams are back in their banks. Communications are open only in isolated districts. Estimated damages for twenty counties is conservatively placed at $10,000,000.

we have heard of J. N. Billingsley and Jack Turpen as their wheat was washed away to a great extent. The heaviest of the storm seemed to be to the south and east, as Sink Creek, just north of town did not get out of banks.

The following is from the Guilford Times about the damage done by the heavy rainfall Sunday night and the flood:

Some stock was lost. John Winters lost one horse in Long Branch. Matteson Bros. on the Jones farm lost a few pigs and had to rescue about 150 head of shoats that were marooned in a barn. Charles Jackson lost over a hundred chickens that had about reached the early fry stage and in all about 375.

Some heroic volunteer work was done along the lowlands to save life and crops. Monday morning word came from the north that Platte River was raising. A large bunch of men, with wagons and teams was gathered up by 9 o'clock to try to save Dave Raynolds', Jas. Miller's and J. L. Thompson's wheat. They succeeded in getting some out, but the water came so fast that lots of it floated away.

John Harman, Geo. Jackson and True Davis got in a boat belonging to Harmon and rowed to Platte River Bridge, west of town and dislodged a drift of brush, logs and wheat shocks that were lodged against the bridge and thus saved it from being washed out.

Many tried to get to their wheat shocks and haul them to higher ground but the water came so fast that they were able to save very little. Some of the loosers of wheat in this section of county were: J. L. Thompson, 40 acres; James Miller, 40 acres; Dave Reynolds, 35 acres; Matteson Bros., nearly 300 acres; Earl McCleave, 230 acres; Charles Jackson, 118 acres; C. D. Farnan, 70 acres; Jas. Neilson, 10 acres; C. C. Hocker, 20 acres; Alma Nelson, some, George Christianson and others.

Word was received from Fred Cain, brother of Tom and Ed Cain of Guilford that Sunday night he and wife awoke about 12 o'clock and found the water running through their house 3 miles north of Conception Junction on the Jas. Robinson farm. Fred got out and tried to find his team so as to get away from the river but could not find them so they climbed to the top of the house where they sat in the rain all the rest of the night and until nine oclock the next morning before they were rescued by men in a boat. The house was almost submerged in water. They have a young baby not over two months old.

WILLIAM BROWN, 80 YEARS OLD, IS SERIOUSLY ILL

William M. Brown is seriously ill at his home on East Fourth street today. He has been in ill health for several months but became critical only after a stroke of paralysis early yesterday morning. He had another stroke about two years ago. He is about 80 years old and it is doubtful if he will recover from this sickness.
